We appreciate your interest in the Self-Determination Program (SDP) and the time you have invested in the selection process. Unfortunately, you were not selected in the initial 2,500 participants that have been chosen for the SDP. Your name will stay on the Department of Developmental Services' (Department) list in the event space becomes available in the program.

Future participant selections will occur if some of the initial 2,500 participants choose not to enroll or discontinue in the program. Timing for future selections will be established at a later date. For updated information on implementation of the SDP, please visit the Department's website at: www.dds.ca.gov/SDP/sdpupdates.cfm.

After the first three years, the SDP will be open to anyone who is interested and eligible for regional center services. If you would like to enroll in the SDP after the first three years, talk to your regional center service coordinator.

Please direct any questions regarding this letter to sdp@dds.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

Community Services Division
California Department of Developmental Services
