

Far Northern Regional Center

Providing services and supports that allow persons with developmental disabilities to live productive and valued lives

SPEAKER: TAWARA GOODE

Tawara is the director of the National Center for Cultural Competence (NCCC) at Georgetown University Center for Child and Human Development and Georgetown University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities and focuses on national level efforts to advance and sustain cultural and linguistic competence in this field.

The mission of the NCCC is to increase the capacity of health care and mental health care programs to design, implement, and evaluate culturally and linguistically competent service delivery systems to address growing diversity, persistent disparities, and to promote health and mental health equity. She had a primary role in developing curricula, assessment instruments, professional development series, and other resources that support cultural and linguistic competence.

CULTURAL AND LINGUISTIC COMPETENCY

In this training, you will learn:

- Understanding and responding to culture within the context of developmental disabilities, services and support.
- Implications for developmental disabilities professionals and service providers
- Optional- Open Forum: What challenges and opportunities do you see in your work?

Tuesday, January 22, 2019
8:30am-4:15pm

Gaia Hotel
4215 Riverside Place
Anderson, CA 96007

Cost: $20.00

Space is limited,
pre-registration required.

CEU Units: 6

If you would like to attend but the cost is a hardship, give us a call.
There are scholarships available.

Please register at: <https://fnrc.eventbrite.com>

For questions or comments, please call Karen at: 530-222-4791 x1563