FNRC is part of a statewide network of 21 Regional Centers responsible for the coordination and development of services to meet the needs of people with developmental disabilities in Shasta, Butte, Tehama, Siskiyou, Modoc, Trinity, Glenn, Lassen and Plumas Counties.

Far Northern Regional Center (FNRC) is seeking a provider to develop a new type of day program that is fully integrated in the greater community and supports full access of individuals to that community. The program should provide opportunities for individuals to seek activities and supports that are based on the individual's needs and preferences, such as employment in competitive integrated settings, and to engage in a full and meaningful life. The program must be able to provide individualized and small group activities to consumers with a wide range of interest, preferences, and needs, which requires knowledge of local resources and how to assist clients in accessing the community resources they need and desire. The new program should develop activities designed to build as much independence as is possible for each unique consumer. Goals and objectives should promote appropriate socialization opportunities, stimulate interest and pride in contributing to one's community, build skills essential to success in seeking and maintaining employment, support individuals in building community connections, and much more.

The program should provide activities and supports in a fully integrated setting and also provide services for those who wish to access supports outside of traditional day programming hours and service sites. Supports may include the usage of technology to connect targeted population to programming and community resources. Supports should include community activities that can be accessed by individuals to the same degree of access as individuals without a disability. The program should support individuals in a wide variety of settings, including an individual's home, the community, as well as an integrated site. Supports can be offered full and part-time to meet the needs and choice of individual clients. Service hours can be flexible to facilitate consumer access to community and peer events and activities.

Start up funds are available for this project through the Community Placement Plan (CPP) up to $100,000.00. The on-going rate for program support will be subject to the statewide median rate structure. Individuals attending the program may require some type of behavioral or medical intervention support services. The new program needs to address transportation and provide adequate staffing ratios for participants.
